Bobbit Declines.

CRAB ORCHARD, Jan. 26.—After a long silence I deem it my duty to answer some of the numerous calls made upon me to run for county attorney and representative, some of which came from my colored friends, one of whom is the able tonsorial artist, Blakemore, who says that when Bobbit runs at Crab Orchard "politics is dead." Now I should like to run for and discharge the duties of both these offices—they are not incompatible and I concede the ability to discharge the duties appertaining to each; upon this my friends and I are agreed, and as the parties are so nearly divided in this county, I do not see how either can win unless both parties put me on their tickets for about two of their best offices, but if they think they can win without me go ahead and then after the election I can say, "I told you so." I would announce myself for county attorney, but I could not think of opposing my friend the grand and lordly Heim. I would announce for representative, but I could not think of opposing my friend, neighbor and quasi relative, Judge Buchanan, and therefore I shall remain a solitary passenger on the crowded bark that will plow its way up the classic stream of Salt river after the primary election. But I desire to say now to my friends that I shall be a candidate for Congress in 1902 and knowing the Declaration of Independence by heart, and Adams' speech in support of it, and eat repeat from memory the biographical sketches of the first eight presidents, Washington, Adams, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, John Quincy Adams, Andrew Jackson and Martin Van Buren and with the resolutions of 1798, embroidered with classic quotations from Homer, Horace, Euripides, Ossian, Goethe, Cowper, Chancer, Tennyson, Pope, Dryden, Pollock, Shakespeare, Byron, Grey, Milton, and a host of others and knowing Cain's Financial School by note, I am a little curious to know who will have the temerity to oppose me, and shall take much pleasure in going a hundred miles to hear the joint discussion between us. I hope the two parties can get along this year in their county races without me, as I am now very busy this winter sharpening all of my tools to cut and hew everything before me in the Congressional race that will occur in November, 1902. Should I have opposition then it will only show that the poet was right when he said, "Fools rush in where angels dare not tread." Well I must close and betake myself to books on the race for Congress, till which I say: Farewell my friends, farewell my foes, My peace with these, my love with those.

A PROMINENT CHICAGO WOMAN SPEAKS.

Prof. Rosa Tyler, of Chicago, Vice President Illinois Woman's Alliance, in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says: "I suffered with a severe cold this winter which threatened to run into pneumonia. I tried different remedies but I seemed to grow worse and the medicine upset my stomach. A friend advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and I found it was pleasant to take and it relieved me at once. I am now entirely recovered, saved a doctor's bill, time and suffering, and I will never be without this splendid medicine again." For sale by Craig & Hocker.

The shooting of John Stotts, of Jessamine, by Dillard Littrell, of the Buckeye section of this county, and the surrender of Littrell to Marshal D. Turner and his subsequent removal from this place to Nicholasville, by the sheriff of Jessamine, was the result, so says rumor, of what was first intended as a jest; Stotts was indebted to Littrell to the amount of 60¢; he laughingly told his creditor he did not intend to pay the debt; Littrell, already in an irascible frame of mind from too much whisky, became terribly inflamed with anger, drew his pistol and fired five times, two shots taking effect, one in the head and one in the side. Stotts is not said to be in a dangerous condition, and declares he will kill Littrell on sight, even through the prison bars.

PIE-HUNTERS.

THE rumor goes round the circle that the democrats (?) who were given jobs by ex-Collector Yerkes will be promptly and, let us add on our own authority, properly fired by Collector Denton in a reasonable time after his induction into office. The friends and personal acquaintances of the new commissioner claim for him a healthy backbone, a good deal of perpendicularity, a proper share of personal and political integrity and that which naturally follows these traits and qualities—a decided hostility to bribery and a sovereign contempt for a renegade. It may be this reputation or it may be some declaration of Judge Denton, we do not assume to know or say, but the one or the other has caused a fluttering in the ranks of the pie-hunters who grabbed at the bat thrown out by Mr. Yerkes. For this class, Judge Denton, owning the qualities of an upright gentleman, can have but the slightest, if any respect. He knows, as Yerkes knows, that these renegade democrats were bought. It is useless to veil the transaction in euphemistic words. It was a case of bargain and sale, as clearly understood as if one had said to the other, "I will make you a still-house watch if you will vote the republican ticket," and the other had responded, "I accept your proposition." These purchased gentlemen are now all a-tremble. Judge Denton was not a party to this contract. He is said to be a man who would not make, approve or condone such a contract. His personal honor, his political integrity, his regard for the maritimus service of his own party following his courteous obligations to friends who have hitherto helped to advance his interests, all forbid the belief that a traitor ever to Judge Denton's political enemy will find favor in his sight. A short while after Benedict Arnold had deserted the rebel army and joined the British, an American officer met an English officer under a flag of truce, when the former asked the latter what the English people thought of Arnold. The Briton promptly responded: "They accept the treason but despise the traitor."

Commissioner Yerkes accepted the treason. Commissioner Denton will deprive the traitor. But the pie-hunters will not be abashed. If the grazing gets short on the republican commons, he will hunt a low place in the democratic fence and try a leap into democratic pastures. We assure him he is not wanted. His room is better than his company. Our arrangements are made to dispense with the companionship and vote of every scoundrel who SOLD OUT FOR PLACE OR MONEY.

MR. BRYAN hasn't favored us with a copy of his "Commoner," but we take Editor Woodson's statement as true that it is such a good thing that the reader cries for more of it, and that Mr. Bryan will at least have to double its size to satisfy his subscribers. The editorials of the Commoner have the merit of remarkable brevity, and cover nearly every subject of general interest at present in Mr. Bryan's strongly rounded sentences. The paper makes no pretense as a chronicler of news, "but as an exponent of democratic sentiment and as a defender of Jeffersonian principles it hopes to make itself useful." It nevertheless carries a running commentary upon all that is important that is going on in the world. We dare say the Commoner will acquire a very large circulation and exert a great influence upon public thought.

We had occasion some time ago to remark that the present generation would not live to see the end of the bank stamp business. Contrary to expectations, the House voted to repeal the law, but the Senate decided that it is better to reduce the tax on beer, cigars, tobacco, patent medicines, etc., than to give the people a relief from licking stamps, and of course the House will have to concur. The reduction of the tax on the luxuries and unnecessary named will not benefit the consumer in the least. It is made solely to help those who helped to elect the party in power, and it must not be charged that the republican party is ungrateful. It always remembers favors, and at the expense of the great common people.

THE law requiring messengers to carry the electoral vote to the Capital is both expensive and foolish. It could just as well be sent by mail, certainly by express, at very little cost, whereas it now requires many thousands of dollars. The constitution provides that these messengers shall be paid at the rate of 25c per mile going and coming, which gives the messenger from the State of Washington a cool $2,000, and as he doubtless rode on a railroad pass, has a nice little sum to lay up for a rainy day. Some patriotic member of Congress should force a reform in the matter.

PEOPLE who witnessed Queen Victoria's coronation are bobbing up all over the country and appear to be as numerous as the oldest Mason and George Washington's body servant. A number too, are claiming to be relatives of the dead queen, now that she is in no condition to dispute them.

It's an ill wind that blows nobody good. Somerset is "all broke up" over smallpox, but on account of that epidemic the Somerset Journal is issued semi-weekly and its readers are getting just twice as many treats as they formerly did. Let it come that way all the time Bre'r Campbell.

POLITICAL.

Pulaski republican will hold a primary April 13. The republicans of Jackson county will hold a primary April 13. Elder John S. Sweeney has been nominated for postmaster at Paris. Prohibitionists have nominated a ticket for county offices in Hardin. A bill was introduced in the Virginia Legislature providing the death penalty for whitecapers. The Indiana Senate passed the bill substituting electrocution for hanging as the death penalty. It is believed the bill will become a law.

Senator Gibson may introduce a resolution in the Indiana Legislature demanding of Gov. Durbin the surrender of fugitives W. S. Taylor and Charles Finley to the Kentucky authorities.

After 17 days of work the Indiana Legislature has passed only one bill. Senator Stillwell threatens to embarrass the republicans by offering a resolution instructing Gov. Durbin to surrender Taylor and Finley to the Kentucky officials.

The prospect of an extra session of Congress is being seriously discussed at Washington. The president is said to have canvassed the subject with a few Senators. It is the opinion that if a special meeting is called, the Philippine question will be the principal business to be considered.

Gen. John B. Castleman, of Louisville, who was in the city Thursday said, when asked who will be elected United States Senator: "I expect it will be ex-Gov. James B. McCreary. He appears to have the lead in that direction, and is a good man. He has worked faithfully for the party." Lexington Democrat.

James Walden, of Whitley, was shot and killed while sitting by the fire reading his Bible.

George Mays, aged 14, and colored, was given three years for shooting his teacher in Whitley.

C. F. Boden, a Joliet, Ill., saloon keeper, swallowed his false teeth and died from the effects.

The Senate substitute for the war revenue bill as it passed the House has been reported. Taxes are reduced on cigars, tobacco, beer, proprietary medicines, insurance, bankers and capital, and the special tax on commercial brokers is repealed. The tax on bank checks is restored. Among the stamp taxes repealed are those on promissory notes, mortgages, telegrams and express and freight receipts.

FIRE AT DANVILLE.—Fire which broke out in the Danville Steam Laundry at 1 o'clock this morning destroyed the fixtures of it, the fixtures of the ice plant and R. R. Gentry's butcher shop. The buildings were badly damaged.

EDITOR LANDRAM, of the Lancaster Record, and Robert L. Davidson, a young attorney of that place, have formed a real estate agency. If you have a home, farm, real estate, improved or unimproved, that you want to dispose of, let them sell it for you.

MISS ANNIE MCKINNEY has yielded to the wishes of her legion of friends to make the race for the democratic nomination for school superintendent and her announcement appears elsewhere. She has had considerable experience in the school room and has been very successful as a teacher. Miss McKinney's folks are all democrats and she would vote that ticket if the laws of Kentucky would let her. Thoroughly qualified and a most excellent lady, she would make a capital superintendent and she has many friends who hope to see her hold that office.

IF you need coal you had better buy since we will not carry a large stock, and 10 days cold weather would run us short. J. H. Baughman & Co.

THE members of the Warren Grigsby Chapter of the U. D. C. are requested to meet Mrs. J. W. Alcorn this evening at 2 o'clock.

WE will sell hay at from 40 to 60 cents per 100 pounds until February 1st. Come quick if you need hay. J. H. Baughman & Co.

HALEY.—John Haley, son of the late Alfred Haley, of Rowland, died at Brodhead, Saturday, aged 36. A wife and several children survive. Mr. Haley was a good citizen and his death occasions much regret wherever he was known.

ALL claims against the city of Stanford must be filed with the finance committee, Dr. J. F. Peyton and M. D. Elmore, three days before regular meeting of the council or same will have to go over until the next regular meeting. L. R. Hughes, clerk.

AT a special meeting of the city council the other night, Robert G. Jones was elected city marshal. He has been acting in that capacity for a month or more and has made an excellent one. Mr. Jones has ordered a blue suit with brass buttons and will be a typical policeman in appearance and otherwise.

ANOTHER gentleman has shied his castor in the ring for sheriff. Assessor C. Granville Baker, one of the most popular gentlemen of his section, wants to serve the people in that capacity and he has friends all over the county who would like to see him hold that high office. He is a true blue democrat and a fine young man in every way.

THE Citizen's National Bank of Somerset is now a certainty. The stock has been well distributed and the required amount, $50,000, subscribed. The promoters expect to have the new institution in full operation within a few weeks at the furthest. It will have no connection whatever with the suspended Somerset National Bank.—Journal.

THIS office holds a check on the Joshua Morris Bank at Montgomery, Ala., which closed its doors Saturday. It was sent by our old friend and former townsmen, Supt. J. I. McKinney, who was clever enough to telegraph us later that the bank had "busted." We sincerely hope that he will lose nothing, but as he usually keeps a good deposit we fear he will.

ARM MANGLED.—Old Mr. Brahma, of the Ottenheim section, had his left arm so badly mangled Friday that it was necessary to amputate it at the wrist. He had cut down a tree and when he started to get out of the way of it as it fell, his foot caught in a grape vine and the tree caught the member between it and another tree, with the above fearful result.

GARLAND SINGLETON, who has made a most excellent school superintendent, asks in this issue for an endorsement. His democracy is as good as the best and he is as clever as the days are long. The schools of Lincoln county have flourished under his supervision and he has made friends of teachers, patrons and pupils, who will be glad to see that he wants to serve them again.

THE Chicago Glee Club gave a most delightful entertainment at Walton's Opera House Friday night to a fairly good audience. The quartette singing was the finest ever heard in Stanford, while the solos of Miss Horner and several of the gentlemen were of a very high order. The Knights of Pythias, who are to be congratulated on bringing so good a "show" to Stanford, cleared about $35, which will likely go to the proposed Widows' and Orphans' Home of that order. The Knights all wore lodge colors and made themselves useful as ticket-sellers, ticket-takers, &c.

LANCASTER.—The democratic county committee met yesterday and made the following nominations: For county judge, A. D. Ford; county clerk, Squire J. A. Doty; assessor, Capt. Tom Austin; jailer, David Ross; sheriff, W. L. Lawson; county attorney, J. I. Hamilton; school superintendent, Miss Eliza Lusk; magistrate, Lancaster district, J. P. Bourne; Bryantville district, Capt. I. M. Dunn, and for representative, Hon. R. H. Tomlinson. The ticket is a strong one and it will win in November. The committee had in view the strength of each man, and took into consideration everything that might effect the races.

OF the 14 prisoners in jail here there are five for rape and three for murder. The other six are awaiting trial for minor offenses.

THE members of the Warren Grigsby Chapter of the U. D. C. are requested to meet Mrs. J. W. Alcorn this evening at 2 o'clock.

WE will sell hay at from 40 to 60 cents per 100 pounds until February 1st. Come quick if you need hay. J. H. Baughman & Co.

HALEY.—John Haley, son of the late Alfred Haley, of Rowland, died at Brodhead, Saturday, aged 36. A wife and several children survive. Mr. Haley was a good citizen and his death occasions much regret wherever he was known.

ALL claims against the city of Stanford must be filed with the finance committee, Dr. J. F. Peyton and M. D. Elmore, three days before regular meeting of the council or same will have to go over until the next regular meeting. L. R. Hughes, clerk.

THE report is being circulated that I have pulled off the track in the race for assessor since my connection with the Currey Grocery Co. at Junction City. Such reports are inclined to injure me and I take this method of nailling the lie. I am still a citizen of Lincoln county, a candidate until the last day in the evening, and I assure you that my prospects are O. K. T. H. Wright.

HENRY IDOL, formerly of this country, was found near where the old depot used to stand at Livingston Saturday morning with a fearful gash in his head and almost frozen. It was at first thought he was dead, but the doctors finally resuscitated him after much work. He was unconscious at last account, but it is believed that he will recover. Foul play is suspected, while there are those who think he was struck by a train.

THE Lexington Democrat has this interview with a Lincoln county man: "Col. J. W. Guest, of Crab Orchard, who is here to see after some of his fine mares, is one of the strongest and most uncompromising democrats in the State. Asked about political matters in Lincoln county, he said: There is only one republican in Crab Orchard, and he is kept in line by Federal office. The rest of us are all for Goebel and the Goebel law, and heartily endorse the disfranchisement of Louisville and the 11th district. There are several candidates for the Legislature in my county, but I shall not vote for any of them until he promises to have a law passed compelling every republican in Lincoln to move into the Ottenheim precinct, and then tack a provision on to disfranchising them forever. Col. Guest will return to 'dearest spot on earth' as he calls Crab Orchard and mingle again with those who love the Lord and the democratic party. Col. Guest is the father-in-law of Mr. Boyle Gill Boyle, of the Louisville Post, and thinks of disinheriting him for letting Dick Knott make a republican out of him."

CRAB ORCHARD.—

The various ice houses are being put in readiness, awaiting the ice king to assume his reign.

Judge Andrew Buchanan spent a few days in Stanford last week. Here's success to him in every worthy undertaking.

Mr. William Beazley, of Louisville, spent a few days with his father's family. His many friends were glad to see him looking so well.

The odor of orange blossoms fills the air here and beautifully intermingles with the spotless snow. Here are congratulations and best wishes in advance.

The lovely grounds of Crab Orchard Springs are being renovated and greatly improved. The horticultural department is being greatly enlarged and the outlook for a prosperous season is decidedly encouraging. The new proprietor and his amiable wife are gaining enviable reputations as host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart returned Saturday from an extended trip through the mountains. His eye-sight seems to be improving but very little. Mr. J. F. Holdam is convalescent from an attack of grip. Mrs. Rebecca Jones is on the sick list. Dr. Pettus is gradually improving. Mr. W. Gaines and wife have gone to Lancaster for their future home. J. Steenberger and family moved to Danville from this place Monday. Miss Bailey, of Washington county, is a pleasant visitor to Mr. F. Bobbitt and sisters. Mr. A. H. Bastin, of Lancaster, spent a few days here last week in the interest of the telephone, which is rendering satisfactory service to our people. He has disposed of his farm here to his brother for a good sum.

Gov. Nash, of Ohio, refused to interfere in the case of Rosslyn H. Ferrel and the murderer of Express Messenger Lane will be electrocuted March 1.

There is general sorrow throughout Italy because of the death of Verdi, and the Italian Senate devoted a full day to eulogies of the great composer. The King sent a message of condolence to the family.

In a shooting affray at Mt. Sterling between Deputy Sheriff James Stockdale and William Morton, a farmer, Stockdale was probably fatally wounded and Morton sustained two slight wounds. The shooting grew out of a dispute over county politics.

THE MOTHER'S FAVORITE.
Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the mother's favorite. It is pleasant and safe for children to take and always cures. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and is the best medicine made for these diseases. There is not the least danger in giving it to children for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

The advantage of seducing country editors into the service of metropolitan newspapers is illustrated in the case of Editor Walton. The entire editorial and reporter staff of the Lexington Morning Democrat went on the absent and sick lists for four days, leaving the chief to make the paper brighter and more voluminous, which he did almost unaided in any department.—Somerset Journal.

What most people want is something mild and gentle, when in need of a physician. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets fill the bill to a dot. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

The Barbourville Pathfinder is violently opposing the candidacy of legislator Luke Hampton for county judge of Knox county because Hampton testified for the Commonwealth in the Goebel murder conspiracy. The Hillsborough Times, another republican paper, says: "Hampton represented this district at Frankfort the past year and during all the trying Goebel times played second fiddle to John Henry Wilson, whose political death is known. The good people of Knox have only one thing to do and that is to shelve Hampton with his master. Murder is bad but treachery is worse."
